At PT Transformations, our professionalism exceeds the sum of our education, certifications, and fitness experience. We work toward something extra. First, we encourage our guests to go just a little beyond their expectations, to the point where they can comfortably – and pleasantly – surprise themselves with their abilities. And second, we listen intently to our guests' goals, hopes and concerns to ensure that the wellness experience we provide is safe, fun, and personally rewarding.

It seems that everyone, even young children or a couple on a first date, learns something about themselves on these kayak tours. I once took a father and son out, a pair who had little time together and were more interested in trading verbal jabs than in learning to kayak. But eventually, out on the water on a beautiful day, they settled into the rhythm of the river. Slowly, they became quiet, observant, attuned to the environment around them – and, attuned to each other.

That's the kind of opportunity we offer every guest we encounter.

Where to Find Us

What to Bring

We recommend sunscreen, sunglasses and a hat – and of course, a camera so you'll have lasting memories of your trip!

Wear old sneakers or water shoes, a swim suit or shorts, and a shirt. In cool or rainy weather, bring a long-sleeved shirt or jacket.

Your Safety

All guests are asked to sign a liability waiver. We also reserve the right to refuse participation to anyone who may be impaired or who, in our judgment, may pose a hazard to self or others.

Note: Kayaking and other activities require physical exertion and a reasonable level of fitness. Certain risks are inherent. PT Transformations LLC cannot assume responsibility for personal injury, medical payments, or property damage or loss.

A way of life

Explore...

...the extraordinary river environment of Bristol Borough in Lower Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Here where the Delaware Canal meets the Delaware River, natural and historical treasures are yours to discover.

First-time kayakers and fitness enthusiasts alike can master the river where 19th century Europeans visited for the healing waters of Bristol's resort, where the Underground Railroad ferried slaves to freedom, and where, today, the residents of Bucks County's oldest town enjoy its ethnically and culturally diverse community.

Boaters can explore the uninhabited Burlington Island, a bird sanctuary of the Nature Conservancy where bald eagle sightings are common. The river's marshland and tidal basin ecosystem also support a wide array of wildlife.

Our Kayaks

We feature Hobie Mirage "Pedal or Paddle" kayaks exclusively. These exactly engineered sit-on-top craft are propelled by Hobie's patented MirageDrive pedal-powered system, enabling kayakers to travel farther and faster with less effort. A kick-up rudder with controls in easy reach makes for smooth steering, and dry well storage keeps your belongings safe and sound. Beginners can rest assured that the airtight hull makes this special kayak unsinkable and easy to maneuver.

Our Guides

Our experienced kayaking guides love the river, the outdoors and Bristol Borough. They are eager to share their knowledge and experience with each guest. All of our guides have completed extensive training, and are PA Boater Safety educated and certified to ensure your safety and comfort. We guarantee a fun and memorable experience – one you will cherish for a lifetime.
